Solis-Grave — Official Reference

Solis-Grave Player's Handbook

Welcome, Wayfarer

You stand before the Citadel of the Dragon-Garrison, an obsidian-and-brass fortress whose walls are carved with the sigils of every bloodline the Inquisition has ever catalogued. Beyond its gates lies a continent scarred by draconic wars, where magic is not learned — it is inherited.

In Solis-Grave, your bloodline decides your destiny. A Blank (0%) cannot cast so much as a candle-flame. A Sovereign (50%+) can level cities. And the Inquisition hunts them all.

The World of Solis-Grave

History in Brief

Millennia ago, seven Ancient Dragons — the Progenitors — waged war across the continent. Their blood soaked the soil. Their bones became mountains. And their essence, the Aether, seeped into mortal bloodlines.

Today, every living creature carries a trace of draconic blood. The percentage of that blood — your Blood Purity — determines whether you can work magic, and at what cost.

Factions

Key Locations

Faction	Motto	Role
The Citadel	"Order through blood."	Ruling government. Registers bloodlines, grants casting licenses.
The Inquisition	"Purity is truth."	Hunts unregistered and hidden bloodlines. Feared by all.
The Dragon-Gods	Pantheon of the Seven	Objects of worship. Clerics and Paladins draw power from them.
The Unbound	Underground resistance	Hidden Sovereigns, rogue Archons, Penitents fleeing blood-debts.
The Crimson Oath	Monster hunters	Legal Blood Hunters. Respected by Inquisitors for their work.

- Citadel of the Dragon-Garrison — Starting location. Inquisitor headquarters. Blood scans mandatory.
- The Ash-Wastes — Where the Progenitor War ended. Aether storms. Wild magic.

- The Sump — Goblin/orc slums beneath the Citadel. Lawless. Greenskin territory.
- Dragon-Graves — Ley line intersections. +10% purity while nearby.
- The Black Citadel — Ruined fortress. Rumored to be the tomb of the last Progenitor.

Social Rules

- Greenskin racism: Goblins, orcs, and trolls are legally non-persons in civilized territories. Playing a Greenskin means constant hostility from NPCs and potential arrest on sight.
 - Blood scans: The Citadel scans all new arrivals. A high-purity reading means registration, surveillance, or worse.
 - Dormancy: You can suppress your bloodline to appear as a lower purity. This gives you a -4 penalty on all standard rolls while suppressed.

The Magic System

Core Principle

Magic comes exclusively from draconic bloodlines. There is no divine/arcane/nature/primal split. A Cleric's healing prayer and a Wizard's fireball come from the same source — the Progenitor blood in your veins.

Blood Purity Brackets

Casting a Spell

Purity	Title	Max Spell Level	Notable
0%	Blank	Cantrips only	Most civilians. Cannot cast leveled spells.
1-10%	Tainted	2nd	Thin bloodline. Cantrips + low magic.
11-25%	Lesser Blood / Scion	5th	Common among adventurers.
26-49%	Half-Sovereign / Heir	5th	Rare. Attracts Inquisitor attention.

50-74%	Sovereign	7th	The elite. The hunted.
75-89%	Greater Sovereign / Archon	8th	Near-legendary.
90-99%	Dragon-Lord	9th	One per generation, if that.
100%	God-Forged	9th (no DC)	Immune to Aether Burn. Theoretical.

Every time you cast a spell of any level:

1. Declare the spell and expend the slot
2. Provide components: V (Old Tongue words), S (bloodline sigil gestures), M (Aether-Core of matching element)
3. Roll Spell Safety save: $d20 + \text{spellcasting ability modifier}$ vs. the DC below

Spell Safety DC

Spell Safety DC = 8 + spell_level + (15 - purity ÷ 7, rounded down)

Purity	Cantrip	1st	3rd	5th	7th	9th
0%	23	—	—	—	—	—

10%	21	22	—	—	—	—
25%	19	20	22	24	—	—
50%	15	16	18	20	22	—
75%	12	13	15	17	19	21
90%	10	11	13	15	17	19
100%	Auto	Auto	Auto	Auto	Auto	Auto

On success: Spell casts normally.

On failure: Spell fizzles (slot is expended). You suffer Aether Burn.

On natural 1: Double Aether Burn + roll on the Wild Aether Surge table.

Aether Burn

Aether Burn = (spell_level + 1)d6 psychic damage

Level	Cantrip	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th	7th	8th	9th
Damage	1d6	2d6	3d6	4d6	5d6	6d6	7d6	8d6	9d6	10d6

Aether Burn is psychic damage that cannot be reduced by resistance. It manifests as searing cracks of light along your veins.

Purity Gating

Spell Components

Aether-Cores

Spell Level	Rule
Cantrips	Anyone can cast, any purity.
1st-2nd	Soft gate: 10%+ or succeed on Spell Safety with +5 DC penalty.
3rd-5th	Soft gate: 25%+ or succeed with +5 DC penalty.
6th-7th	Hard gate: 50%+ required. No exceptions.

8th-9th	Hard gate: 75%+ required. No exceptions.
---------	--

Component	Name	Description
V	Old Tongue	Draconic syllables. Whispered for subtle spells, roared for evocations.
S	Bloodline Sigil	Hand gesture tracing your unique sigil. Wrong sigil = auto-fail.
M	Aether-Core	Harvested from slain monsters. Replace ALL standard D&D components.

Core Tier	Source CR	Fuels	Cost
Fractured	CR 1-4	Cantrips, 1st-2nd	5-50 GC
Intact	CR 5-10	3rd-5th	50-500 GC
Pristine	CR 11-16	6th-7th	500-5,000 GC
Sovereign-Fragment	CR 17+	8th-9th	5,000-50,000 GC

Cores are NOT consumed on successful casting. They shatter only when you fail a Spell Safety save — absorbing the backlash that would otherwise kill you.

Matching the core's element to the spell reduces your Spell Safety DC by 1.

Core elements: Fire, Storm, Void, Earth, Frost, Flesh, Law, Wild (universal, no DC reduction).

Purity Modifiers

Aether Burn Risk Tags

Situation	Effect	Duration
Sovereign Surge (class ability)	+15%	1 minute, 1/short rest
Dormancy (hiding bloodline)	-20%	While suppressed
Inquisitor within 60ft	-10%	While in range
Dragon-Touched location	+10%	While in area
Aether Storm weather	-15%	Storm duration
Blood Offering (1d4 self-damage)	+5% per 1d4	1 round
God-Shroud Armor (attuned)	Resets to 90%	While worn

Every spell is tagged with one of:

Tag	+DC	Typical Spells
None	+0	Cantrips, ritual-only spells
Low	+1	Defensive buffs, divination, minor utility
Moderate	+2	Most combat spells

Severe	+3	High-damage evocations, necromancy, conjuration
Catastrophic	+5	9th level, bloodline manipulation, resurrection

This is ADDED to the base Spell Safety DC.

Concentration & Aether Burn

When you're concentrating on a spell and suffer Aether Burn, make a Concentration save at DC 10 or half the burn damage (whichever is higher), in addition to any other concentration triggers that round.

At 3rd level, non-caster classes (Barbarian, Fighter, Monk, Rogue) with 10%+ purity unlock Blood Awakening. They learn 2 cantrips from their linked spell list, cast with a +2 spellcasting mod regardless of stats. Their draconic blood stirs, enough to channel ambient aether without formal training.

Class Spotlight: Warlock (Penitent)

Non-Caster	Cantrip Source
Barbarian	Druid
Fighter	Wizard
Monk	Cleric
Rogue	Wizard

You made a pact with an Ancient Dragon-God, a Void entity, or a Sovereign spirit. Your magic is borrowed — and the interest is blood. Penitents are the most hunted class in Solis-Grave. Choose your patron carefully:

- Archfiend → Ancient Red Dragon (cinder/fire)
- Great Old One → Void Progenitor (abyssal/void)

- Celestial → Dragon-God of Law (celestial/law)
- Fathomless → Deep Wyrn (frost/storm)
- Hexblade → Bound weapon forged from a sovereign's bone

Class Spotlight: Sorcerer (Archon)

You didn't study. You didn't pray. You were born this way. Archons are the face of legal magic — registered, taxed, and watched. Your bloodline is random: a wild surge of draconic essence that manifested at puberty, a stress event, or birth.

Metamagic — the ability to reshape spells on the fly — is unique to Archons and Sovereigns.

Class Spotlight: Sovereign (Dragon-Heir) — SECRET

You don't pick Sovereign. Sovereign picks you.

At campaign start, one player is randomly and secretly chosen as a dormant Sovereign. They play a normal class. Their bloodline awakens through story events — a failed Inquisitor blood scan, a near-death experience at a Dragon-Grave, or their first spell cast.

When the bloodline awakens:

- You gain the Sovereign class features ON TOP of your existing class
- Your purity jumps to 50% immediately
- You gain Sovereign Surge: 1/short rest, +15% purity for 1 minute
- You gain access to the Sovereign spell list (signature spells like Bloodline Severance, Dragon Apotheosis, Sovereign's Decree)

- Your purity increases by +5% at levels 5, 10, 15, 20
- At level 20, you can reach 100% purity — the only class that can
- The Inquisition will hunt you relentlessly from the moment your bloodline is revealed

If you're solo, you ARE the Sovereign. No random selection — you're the main character.

Character Creation

Step-by-Step

1. Choose a class from the 14 selectable classes (Sovereign is not selectable — it's granted secretly)

2. Choose a race — Human, Elf, Dwarf, Half-Orc, Tiefling, etc. (standard D&D races)
3. Set your name
4. Roll or assign stats — STR, DEX, CON, INT, WIS, CHA (standard array, point buy, or 4d6k3)
5. Note your starting Blood Purity from the class table above
6. Choose starting equipment from your class options
7. Create your sheet with `/character_create` in Discord

Solis-Grave Combat Mechanics

Conditions & Death

Conditions

Death & Dying

Mechanic	Rule
Dual-Heartbeat	Hidden Sovereigns roll d20 at combat start and when Inquisitors are within 60ft. On 1-5, the bloodline surges uncontrollably — the Sovereign is revealed to all within line of sight.
Sovereign Surge	Sovereign class ability. 1/short rest. +15% purity for 1 minute. The surge is visible — your eyes glow, veins light up, and sigils manifest on your skin.
Aether Burn in Combat	When you fail a Spell Safety save, you take the burn AND must make a Concentration save. A natural 1 on the Spell Safety save triggers the Wild Aether Surge table.
Condition	Effect
Blinded	Auto-fail sight checks. Attacks against you have advantage. Your attacks have disadvantage.
Charmed	Can't attack charmer. Charmer has advantage on social checks against you.
Deafened	Auto-fail hearing checks.
Frightened	Disadvantage on checks/attacks while source is visible. Can't willingly move closer.
Grappled	Speed = 0. Ends if grappler is incapacitated or moved.
Incapacitated	Can't take actions, bonus actions, or reactions.

Invisible	Heavily obscured. Advantage on attacks. Attacks against you have disadvantage.
Paralyzed	Incapacitated + auto-fail STR/DEX saves. Attacks within 5ft are crits.
Petrified	Incapacitated + resistance to all damage + immune to poison/disease + weight ×10.
Poisoned	Disadvantage on all attacks and checks.
Prone	Disadvantage on attacks. Attacks within 5ft have advantage. Ranged attacks have disadvantage.
Restrained	Speed = 0. Disadvantage on attacks. Attacks against you have advantage. Disadvantage on DEX saves.
Stunned	Incapacitated + auto-fail STR/DEX saves. Attacks against you have advantage.
Unconscious	Incapacitated + prone + auto-fail STR/DEX saves. Attacks within 5ft are crits.

When your HP drops to 0:

1. You fall unconscious
2. At the start of each of your turns, roll a Death Saving Throw (d20, no modifiers)

3. 10 or higher = success. 9 or lower = failure. Natural 20 = regain 1 HP.
Natural 1 = two failures.

4. 3 successes = stabilized (unconscious but not dying)

5. 3 failures = dead

Death saves are tracked on your character sheet embed automatically by the DM bot.

Returning from Death

Campaign Modes

Solo + NPC Party

Method

Spell Level

Cost

- "Scout ahead, Vex"

NPCs can die permanently. They'll be replaced at the next safe location (town, camp, etc.). They gain XP and level with you.

View your party: `/npc_list`

Cross-Play: If another solo player is in the same region, your parties may meet. The DM rolls a d100 each in-game day — on 85+, the encounter happens.

Group Play

2-5 players. One of you is secretly the Sovereign — the DM reveals it through story. Everyone plays together in a shared channel.

The Secret Sovereign

One player per campaign is randomly selected to carry the dormant Sovereign bloodline. You won't know it's you until the story reveals it.

How It Awakens

The DM may trigger the awakening through:

- A failed blood scan at the Citadel gates
- Your first spell cast in combat
- A near-death experience at a Dragon-Grave
- An Inquisitor sensing something "wrong" about you

- Touching a Sovereign-Fragment Aether-Core

After Awakening

- Your purity jumps to 50%
- You gain the Sovereign class features alongside your existing class
- You gain access to the Sovereign spell list
- The Inquisition is now hunting you
- You can reach 100% purity by level 20 — the only character who can

Playing as a Hidden Sovereign

Before awakening, you're affected by:

- Dormancy Penalty: -4 on all standard rolls (your body is suppressing something immense)
- Dual-Heartbeat: At combat start or Inquisitor proximity, roll d20. On 1-5, the bloodline surges and you're revealed.
